

CHARLEY'S FLAVOURED

BLENDED SCOTCH WHISKY BASED

CHARLEY'S
Blended Scotch Whisky flavoured with peach and passion fruit.

CHARLEY'S FLAVOURED based on blended scotch whisky, it is an interesting proposition for all cocktail fans.

CHARLEY'S PEACH tastes good in dry cocktails or with prosecco, but also in classic way with tonic water and lots of ice.

Aroma: a good balance between the grainy notes of whiskey and the light sweetness and crispness of fresh peach. Coconut and vanilla notes in the background.

Taste: a successful balance between whisky and peach, discreet sweetness.

Finish: very fruity, apart from peach, plums and apricots are also noticeable.

CHARLEY'S PASSION FRUITS is an interesting alternative to rum in the popular maracuja daiquiri cocktail. It tastes good in dry cocktails or with ice and pineapple juice.

Aroma: there is a lot of exoticism: passion fruit, mango, papaya, vanilla, but also coconut, in the background clear notes of grain alcohol, nicely complemented.

Taste: light, crisp, cocktail, sweet-sour-bitter.

Finish: passion fruit flavor is complemented by the crisp sweetness of mandarin and peach, also with hints of sweet coconut.
